

Discussion Starters, Moments of Pause

CONVERSATION PROMPTS

Use these prompts to open a conversation with your team after the quiz reveal.

TO OPEN THE CONVERSATION:

"Let's take a look at the mix of results we have in the room. What does that tell us about where we are as a team right now?"

"Is anyone surprised by their result?"

If your team is mostly Restorative

"What's one thing we could do as a team in the next part of the year that would give us all a bit more breathing room?"

educate+

If your team is mostly Curious

"We're a team that's energised by ideas and discovery. What's one thing we haven't had the chance to explore this year that we'd love to dig into together?"

If your team is mostly Moving

"It sounds like we're ready to get going. What would give us the most momentum as we head into the second half of the year?"

If your team is mixed:

"How can we better support each other, knowing that we all recharge in different ways?"

BLUE
BOAT

Another Brilliant Thinking project by